

Appendix 5

Centres must ensure that both invigilators and those acting as a prompter are appropriately trained and familiar with the rules detailed within section 5.10

It is essential that the candidate is made aware of what a prompter can and cannot do in advance of their first examination, e.g. internal school tests or mock exams.